Inspirational Thoughts / Moments of Gratitude

7:08 Cheryl: officially retired from 35 years as a Speech Pathologist in public school. Feels blessed that she's made such an impact on young children that they recognize and remember her.
Felicity: grateful to Ministry Board members of the closing year, as well as those continuing on.
Steve: proud of his daughter-in-law who just graduated with her Master's, and grateful that she and his son are so happy.

Ministry Board Reports

7:13 Steve: He and Sharon would like to host Family Promise for a week in September, including gathering, preparing food, etc. The plan is tentative. Looking for ideas/feedback regarding how to safely proceed. Felicity suggests Steve seek guidance from Pastors Sarah and Steve.
Ava: MYP Zoom meetings have been sparse in attendance. An in-person outdoor game day on May 23rd was successful. Working on reshaping what MYP will look like with new leadership when we all come back in-person.

Eduardo: D&I recommends Rev. Dr. Yvette Flunder to speak at IUCC. Felicity agrees, as Rev. Flunder touches many diverse groups.

Volunteer Needs

7:21 Ava: MYP is looking for volunteers for Sunday School teachers, chaperones, ideas for and participation in events, service projects, and tech support. Interested parties should contact Lauren Louie.

Staff Report

7:22 Pastor Steve is not in attendance.

Calendar Additions

Old Business

7:23 No old business.

New Business

7:23 Pat inquiring about a conversation referenced in the May Minutes regarding fundraising. Tricia informs Pat that her question has been forwarded to the Bylaws Committee. Alex explains that the conversation was casually brought up in the May Meeting because members enjoy branded merchandise—such as T-shirts, mugs, and pens—with IUCC’s name/logo. Alex and Felicity both confirm that the suggestion was not made to raise funds for any particular Ministry; that the purpose was fun church swag with any proceeds going to the General Fund. Tricia assures the Ministry Board that the Bylaws Committee is discussing further, and will inform the Admin Board of any decisions or policy changes.
