

IUCC Women's Fellowship group tour of
Echoes of Perception:
Peter Alexander and California Impressionism

Join us at this curated art exhibit of works that exemplify California Impressionists' profound connection to light, space, and natural phenomena, and the influence they have had on Peter Alexander's work. The exhibit forms a fluid exchange between generations equally influenced by the atmospheric light of the Golden State.

Our guided group visit will be facilitated by museum education staff or a UCI student museum educator.
